2. Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Regulations, 2022

No. FEMA 400/2022-RB
Dated: 22nd August, 2022

Vide this notification, RBI has notified the Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Regulations, 2022.

Following is a gist of the regulations:

1. Financial commitment by Indian entity by modes other than equity capital: The Indian entity may lend or invest in any debt instrument issued by a foreign entity or extend non-fund-based commitment to or on behalf of a foreign entity including overseas step down subsidiaries of such Indian entity subject to the prescribed conditions within the financial commitment limit as prescribed in the Foreign Exchange Management (Overseas Investment) Rules, 2022.

2. Financial commitment by Indian entity by way of debt: An Indian entity may lend or invest in any debt instruments issued by a foreign entity subject to the condition that such loans are duly backed by a loan agreement where the rate of interest shall be charged on an arm's length basis.

3. Financial commitment by way of guarantee: The following guarantees may be issued to or on behalf of the foreign entity or any of its step down subsidiary in which the Indian entity has acquired control through the foreign entity, namely:–

i. corporate or performance guarantee by such Indian entity;
ii. corporate or performance guarantee by a group company of such Indian entity in India, being a holding company (which holds at least 51 per cent. stake in the Indian entity) or a subsidiary company (in which the Indian entity holds at least 51 per cent. stake) or a promoter group company, which is a body corporate;
iii. personal guarantee by the resident individual promoter of such an Indian entity;
iv. bank guarantee, which is backed by a counter-guarantee or collateral by the Indian entity or its group company as per i.-iii above, and issued, by a bank in India.

4. Financial commitment by way of pledge or charge: An Indian entity, which has made ODI by way of investment in equity capital in a foreign entity, may—

(a) pledge the equity capital of the foreign entity in which it has made ODI or of its step down subsidiary outside India, held directly by the Indian entity in a foreign entity and indirectly in step down subsidiary, in favour of an AD bank or a public financial institution in India or an overseas lender, for availing fund based or non-fund based facilities for itself or for any foreign entity in which it has made ODI or its step down subsidiaries outside India or in favour of a debenture trustee registered with SEBI for availing fund based facilities for itself

(b) create charge by way of mortgage, pledge, hypothecation or any other identical mode on its assets in India or the assets outside India as prescribed in these regulations.

5. Acquisition or transfer by way of deferred payment:
(1) Where a person resident in India acquires equity capital by way of subscription to an issue or by way of purchase from a person resident outside India or where a person resident outside India acquires equity capital by way of purchase from a person resident in India, and where such equity capital is reckoned as ODI, the payment of amount of consideration for the equity capital acquired may be deferred for such definite period from the date of the agreement as provided in such agreement subject to the prescribed terms and conditions.

(2)The buyer may be indemnified by the seller up to such amount and be subject to such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon and laid down in the agreement.

6. Mode of payment: A person resident in India making Overseas Investment may make payment –

i. by remittance made through banking channels;
ii. from funds held in an account maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Act;
iii. by swap of securities;
iv. by using the proceeds of American Depository Receipts or Global Depositary Receipts or stock-swap of such receipts or external commercial borrowings raised in accordance with the provisions of the Act and the rules and regulations made thereunder for making ODI or financial commitment by way of debt by an Indian entity.

7. Obligations of person resident in India: A person resident in India acquiring equity capital in a foreign entity, which is reckoned as ODI, shall submit to the AD bank share certificates or any other relevant documents as per the applicable laws of the host country or the host jurisdiction, as the case may be, as an evidence of such investment in the foreign entity within six months from the date of effecting remittance or the date on which the dues to such person are capitalised or the date on which the amount due was allowed to be capitalised, as the case may be.

8. Reporting requirements for Overseas Investment: Unless otherwise provided in these regulations, all reporting by a person resident in India, as specified, shall be made through the designated AD bank in the manner provided in this regulation and in the format provided by the Reserve Bank.

9. Delay in reporting: A person resident in India who does not submit the evidence of investment within the time specified under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 9 or does not make any filing within the time specified under regulation 10, may make such submission or filing, as the case may be, along with Late Submission Fee within such period as may be advised, and at the rates and in the manner as may be directed by the Reserve Bank, from time to time

10. Restriction on further financial commitment or transfer: A person resident in India who has made a financial commitment in a foreign entity in accordance with the Act or rules or regulations made thereunder, shall not make any further financial commitment, whether fund-based or non-fund-based, directly or indirectly, towards such foreign entity or transfer such investment till any delay in reporting is regularised.

SEBI

1. Enhanced guidelines for debenture trustees and listed issuer companies on security creation and initial due diligence

Circular No.: SEBI/HO/DDHS/DDHS_Div1/P/CIR/2022/106
Dated 4th August, 2022

The SEBI Board, in its meeting on September 28, 2020, had approved changes to the regulatory framework relating to debenture trustees (DTs), enhancing their role. Resultant amendments were made in the SEBI (Debenture Trustees) Regulations, 1993, SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (LODR Regulations) and erstwhile SEBI (Issue and Listing of Debt Securities) Regulations, 2008, pursuant to which a circular (Circular No. SEBI/HO/MIRSD/CRADT/CIR/P/2020/218 dated November 03, 2020) on the creation of security and due diligence by DTs was issued.

Vide this circular, SEBI tweaked some aspects of the above circular and has laid down the following revised requirements relating to encumbrance, creation of security and related due diligence by DTs:

A. Manner of change in security/creation of additional security/conversion of unsecured to secured in case of already listed non-convertible debt securities:

1. Regulation 59 of SEBI LODR Regulations provides for a change in terms of listed non-convertible debt securities. A change in the structure of non-convertible debt securities, inter-alia, may include:

- A change in security,
- Creation of additional security in case of already secured debt securities
- Creation of security in case of unsecured debt securities.

2. Directions as prescribed in the circular are issued in order to harmonize the process of creation of security pursuant to listing.

B. Encumbrance on securities for issuance of listed debt securities:

Creation of encumbrance on the securities for securing the non-convertible debt securities shall be through the depository system only in accordance with the Depositories Act, 1996, the SEBI (Depositories and Participants) Regulations, 2018, Depository bye laws and other applicable regulations and circulars.

C. Due Diligence Certificate in case of Shelf Prospectus/Memorandum:

In case security details have not been finalized at the time of the filing of a draft shelf prospectus/placement memorandum filed by an issuer company, then the DT shall undertake due diligence as under:

- DT may furnish a due diligence certificate, confirming that it has carried out due diligence for the clauses other than that related to security creation.
- At the time of the issuance of the tranche memorandum/ prospectus when the issue structure including terms related to security has been determined and finalized, the DT shall issue a due diligence certificate covering all clauses of formats as prescribed.

D. Empanelment of External Agencies by Debenture Trustee(s):

For the purpose of empanelment of external agencies for carrying out due diligence in terms of SEBI Circular dated November 03,2020, continuous monitoring in terms SEBI Circular dated November 12, 2020 as well as this circular, DTs shall:

- Adopt an empanelment criterion/ policy as approved by their board of Directors and shall disclose the same on their website.
- Formulate a policy on mitigating conflict of interest and shall disclose the same on their website; the policy shall, inter-alia, include a requirement that the empaneled agency would have no pecuniary relationship with the issuer company 3 years prior to the issue.

E. Compliance with SEBI Circulars on 'Security & Covenant Monitoring System':

In order to ensure efficient recording of details regarding creation of security and monitoring of covenants via the system hosted by Depositories using the Distributed Ledger Technology (DLT), various stakeholders, viz. Issuers, Depositories, DTs and CRAs shall ensure that they are in compliance of various circulars issued by SEBI from time to time.

10. Amendments to guidelines for preferential issue and institutional placement of units by a listed InvIT

Dated 26th August, 2022

SEBI issued circular SEBI/HO/DDHS/DDHS/CIR/P/2019/143dated November 27, 2019 providing guidelines for preferential issue and institutional placement of units by listed InvITs ("Guidelines").

The guidelines for preferential issue and institutional placement of units by listed InvITs stand modified as under:

1. Clause 3.5 of above circular (as amended) is modified as under:
Post allotment, the InvIT shall make an application for listing of the units to the stock exchange(s) and the units shall be listed within two working days (previously seven working days) from the date of allotment:
Provided that where the InvIT fails to list the units within the specified time, the monies received shall be refunded through verifiable means within four working days (previously twenty working days) from the date of the allotment, and if any such money is not repaid within such time after the issuer becomes liable to repay it, the InvIT, investment manager of the InvIT and its director or partner who is an officer in default shall, on and from the expiry of the fourth working day (previously twentieth working day), be jointly and severally liable to repay that money with interest at the rate of fifteen percent per annum.

2. Sub-paragraph (A) of paragraph 2 of Annexure-I of above circular (as amended) is modified as under:
Where the units of the InvIT are frequently traded, the price of units to be allotted pursuant to the preferential issue shall not be less than higher of the following:

a) the 90 trading days' volume weighted average price of the related units quoted on the recognised stock exchange preceding the relevant date; or
b) the 10 trading days' volume weighted average prices of the related units quoted on a recognised stock exchange preceding the relevant date.

A preferential issue of units to "institutional investors" not exceeding five in number, shall be made at a price not less than the 10 trading days' volume weighted average prices of the related units quoted on a recognised stock exchange preceding the relevant date.

3. Clause 4.1 of Annexure-I (as amended) is modified as under and the explanation stands deleted:
Preferential issue of units shall not be made to any person who has sold or transferred any units of the issuer during the 90 trading days (previously 6 months) preceding the relevant date. Further, where any person belonging to the sponsor(s) has sold/transferred their units of the issuer during the 90 days preceding the relevant date, all sponsors shall be ineligible for allotment of units on a preferential basis.

Provided that this restriction on preferential issue of units shall not apply to a sponsor(s), in case any asset is being acquired by the InvIT from that sponsor(s), and preferential issue of units is being made to that sponsor, as full consideration for the acquisition of such asset.

Circular
